We are very pleased with the results of the questionnaire, again this year. 99% of parents strongly agree or agree with all of the statements, which is a super result.

I was particularly pleased to see that the percentage of parents strongly agreeing with appropriate homework and their child making good progress in school had increased compared to last year.

It was also positive to see that everyone agreed that children are well behaved and 99% agreed that bullying is dealt with effectively, as this matches our judgement of outstanding behaviour in school and the OFSTED inspector agreed with us.

Thank you for completing these questionnaires, we will use them to continue to provide the best education possible for your child. Miss Ward
